INDEX.

A.

PAGE.

Anti-Slavery May Meetings in New York and London, No. 1—Errors of the Friends of Abolitionism—Free Democracy—Theodore Parker and Miss Lucy Stone—Wm. Lloyd Garrison—Edward Quincy of Massachusetts—Wendell Phillips—Rev Henry Ward Beecher—Fred. Douglas, - - - - - - - - 64

A night in the Clouds, - - - - - - 144

A Legend of Wampanoag, - - - - 162

A Reminiscence of the Rhine—Written on the Ohio, - - - - - - 166

Anti-Slavery May Meetings in New York and London. No. 2—The Meeting at the Tabernacle—Fred. Douglas the Orator of the Day—Fred.'s lecture on the Laws of Maryland—Mr. Arthur Tappan, the Abolition Financier—Funds from the Sandwich Islands for the Abolition Prize Essay—Anti-Slavery in the Pulpit—Forty thousand dollar fund to give complete efficiency to an already powerful combination against the country's laws and institutions, - - - - - - - - - - 168

Annual Meeting at Exeter Hall, London—British and Foreign Anti-Slavery Society, May 26th, 1853—The Earl of Shaftesbury—Prof. Stowe—Beecher—Christianity among Slaves—British Servitude—Negroes in the North and in the West Indies—London Times on Shaftsbury—Irish Landlords—The Abolition Party the declared and determined enemy of peace and truth, of the institutions, religious and political, of our country and of the palladium of both the Bible and the Constitution—Secret auxiliaries of Abolitionism—Newspapers and Periodicals—The true friends of the Union—The Union not to be sold at any price—Neutrals on the look out to see which is the stronger party - - 176

A Roving Middy—Four years in the Government Exploring Expedition, commanded by Capt. Charles Wilkes, by Lieut. Geo. M. Colvocoresses. New-York: R. T. Young, - - - - - - - - - 221

PAGE.

All Men are Born Free, - - - - - - 330

Abolition versus The Union, - - - - 289

B.

Biographical Sketches of John Smith, - - - - - - - - - - - 28

Bleak House, - - - - - - - - - - 276

Barrington's Sketches, - - - - - - 325

D.

Democracy, what is it?—What we are and what we are not—Our definition of Democracy—Democracy in Rome, Athens and Florence—Sovereignty of Constitution—The only Despotism that ought to be recognised by a free People—Origin of the two Parties—State Rights—The Fundamental Basis of Democracy—Special Legislation—Monopolies BankingCorporations—FreeBanking—Manufacturing Monopolies—Corrupting Influences—Internal Improvements—"Protection"—Political action of Legislatures in regard to Corporations—Extra Session at Albany—The functions of Government—Distinctions between Democracy and Despotism — Public Moneys — Public Lands—Effects of "Plenty of Money" on Morals, &c.—Rents in New-York—Henry Clay — Andrew Jackson — Vested Rights, &c., - - - - - - - - - - 1

Dawns in the Highlands, - - - - 218

F.

Fugitive Thoughts and Random Criticism, - - - - - - - - - 42

Fanny Fern, - - - - - - - - - 187

Fashionable Promenades—Regent Street—Broadway—Social Characteristics—London Club-Houses—Ladies of Fashion and their Resources—English Footmen—The use of Clubs, &c.,—Union Square New-York—Broadway—Loafers—The Upper Ten—Bleecker-Street and its Inhabitants—Prescott House—Drinks—Horace Greeley, Dana & Co.—St. Nicholas Hotel — Florence s— Taylor's—Peris and Houris— The Park— Barnum—Wall-street —The Battery—Julien's—"Tribune?"—Smoke, - - - - - - 226

PAGE.

Fugitive Thoughts and Random Criticisms—The Author of Waverly, - - - - - - - - - 238

G.

G. W. Curtis, - - - - - - - 80

H.

Home Life in Germany, - - - 49

L.

Long Island, - - - - - - - 334
Life-Love, - - - - - - - - 339
Literary Notices, - - - - - 383

M.

My Mind my Kingdom is, - - - 263

N.

N. P. Willis, - - - - - - - 340
National Literature and the International Copy-Right Treaty—"Opinion governs the World"—Influence of Public Journals—British Literature—Abolitionists of the United States and England—Slavery, the only National Question—Sir H. Bulwer and Lord Palmerston—California, the future centre of commerce—President-making—"Political Capital"—British Reviews and Magazines—Liberty of the Press in England—Irish Exiles—"Crown and Government Security Bills"—Foreign Critics' Dependence of American writers on English opinion, - - - - - - - - 97
Notices, &c., - - - - - - - - 92

P.

Power of Federal Taxation, - - 56
Pamphlets for the People, No. 1,—Uncompensated Labor Strikes—The inalienable right of Revolution—The laboring man should receive wages sufficient to support his family in comfort—Ingratitude of the Rich—Labor, the Producer of Wealth—Charitable Joint Stock Companies—Conservatism—God save the Republic—Aristocracy of Gold—Frightful increase of Crime—The City—16,000 Criminals committed in one City in one Year—Modern Civilization—Neither France, England, nor Germany can compare with us in Criminal Statistics—Approaching Conflict between the Oppressors and the Oppressed—Juvenile Delinquency, Male and Female—The Feeble may be oppressed without violation of the law of the Land—"What will the Poor Do?"—Paper Money—High Rents and dear Food—The Rich should care for the Poor—Emigrate—The heart of the People is sound, yet—The Remedy, - - - - 193
Power of Congress over Internal Improvements—Rivers and Harbors, &c., - - - - - - - - 273

S.

School House Sketches, - - - 34
Supplementary visit to the Moon, by Pilgrim Progress, Jr., - - - 125
Song, - - - - - - - - - - 225
Sir Brasil's Falcon, - - - - 248

The Mermaid's Song, - - - - - 90
The British Spy; or, The "Three Good Men and True," - - - 117
Things in General—Anti-Maine Law Rhyme—Negromania—Epigrams, - - - - - - - - 191
Timur, the Tartar, - - - - - 236
The Fast Age, or, The Spirit of the Times: Fast Men—Now and Then, - - - - - - - - 257
The Right One, or my Wife, - - 264
The Stripes and Stars, - - - - 272
Things in General—Western Men and English Poets—Western Poets & Englishmen, Notices, &c. 281
The Marble Maiden, - - - - - 317
The Genius of Sleep, - - - - - 338
The Disbanded Officer, - - - - 345
To Milton, - - - - - - - - 352
Turkey and Russia, - - - - - 353
The Family of Yesterday, &c., - - 375

U.

Union of the Democratic Party, - 84